Hey La! (Hebrew Calendar Song)

Romans 11:32 "For God locks us all TOGETHER in disobedience, that he may have mercy on us ALL."

```
                    E                                                  D/A
We start out in the Spring, when birds sing and bees sting, in the month of Nisan,
          E                                D/A
And the PASSOVER meal for Jews or EASTER for Christians.
     E                                            D/A
Then the months of Ziv and Sivan take us into the summer,
     E                                D/A
ThenTammuz, Av and Elul lead us up to September.

CHORUS
          E                          D/A
Let's celebrate YOM KIPPUR on the 10th of Tishri,
          E                                D/A
Followed by the harvest of Bul and a time of THANKSGIVING (in November).
 E
Kislev has HANUKKAH, the Festival of Lights,
     D/A
And Tevet brings PEACE on a Silent Night.
     E
In the month of Shevat some may make resolutions,
     D/A
Before Adar brings the PURIM celebration!.

CHORUS
       E                D/A
Hey La! Hey Hey La! La La Hey!
       E                D/A
Our Lord reigns, no matter what day (or month or year)
       E                D/A
Hey La! Hey Hey La! La La Hey!
       E                D/A
Let all God's children join hands together and pray (and they'd say…)
```
